Dear GLIP Team ,

We carefully read your explanations and reviewed your contract code.

Thanks for your detailed explanation.

First of all, we have removed the Mint warning. However, the burn mechanism can modify a holder's balance, which is why the Owner Can Change Balance warning remains. Additionally, the contract includes both freeze (blacklist) and pause (trading pausable) mechanisms. Therefore, it would not be appropriate for us to remove those warnings. However, we have removed the Mint warning.
